Commerce Project

Project Information

The Commerce Project is where we reduce the cost, complexity and time required to deploy cutting edge retail solutions using EdgeX Foundry. All attendees are welcome, and all presentations and notes will be openly posted here.

Key Project Facts

Project Approval Date: October 24, 2018

Project Maintainer: Henry Lau (HP) and Camilo Dennis (Intel)

Join the Commerce Project

We are looking for technical and marketing representatives from all roles in retail, banking and other commerce domains. Please follow the instructions below to 1) get subscribed to calendar invitations for our working meetings and 2) get subscribed to the email distribution list.

Note: no membership/fee is required to participate in the Commerce Project (or any other EdgeX Foundry) meetings.

Sign up for a free Linux Foundation account:

1. Create an account at: https://identity.linuxfoundation.org/
2. Browse back to: https://wiki.edgexfoundry.org/display/FA/Commerce+Project
3. Click on “Log in” in the upper right corner, if not already logged in

Subscribe to the Commerce Project calendar meetings:

1. Browse to: https://wiki.edgexfoundry.org/display/FA/EdgeX+TSC+Group+Calendar
2. Under the “Subscriptions” header, click on the “ellipses”(…) that appears when you hover over the purple item labelled “EdgeX-TSC-Vertic…”
3. Choose “Subscribe” or “Export to iCalendar” depending on your preferred method of adding appointments to your calendar

If you have any trouble subscribing to the calendar, please email info@edgexfoundry.org. Note that there are multiple ways to subscribe to the calendar, and some will be better than others depending on your IT environment.
